Little Rosa Zenoch.

Believing the grim picture of suffering and death in Galicia is the story of a little peasant girl who did not understand why the big guns spoke in such terrible tones, but did know that soldiers were thirsty and must have water. The battle of Rowa Raska may never be chronicled by historians, but the name of Rosa Zenoch, 11 years old, sister of one of the Austrian soldiers, defending the town against the Russian attack, and the story of how she carried water through the zone of fire until a piece of shrapnel tore away her leg, should be told whenever conversation turns to deeds of valor.
Disregarding her mother's instructions to go into the cellar and hide, Rosa ran to the well, filled a large earthen jug and carried it to her brother and his companions who were defending the town. She made several trips to the well and back again without misfortune overtaking her. Then a shrapnel shell burst scarcely behind her and she fell wounded. Lying in her little cot in the hospital with her right leg amputated above the knee, Rosa often asks about the soldiers and why they fight with guns.Ripe Olives 32¢

New Version of Monroe Doctrine Proposed to Pan-American Conference

WARBURG'S WARNING TO THE FINANCIERS.

Draws Lesson from the Error of Making One Nation the World's Banker.

The Squeeze that Resulted When England Called for Some of the Money Due Her at the Outset of the War is the Theme of a Director of the Federal Reserve. The Communion of the Hemispheres.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The story of how vast resources of the United States may be used to aid the republics of South and Central America in clearing away difficulties that the European war has brought upon the western hemisphere was told in part today to business men and bankers who represent this nation at the Pan-American financial conference.

Need for greater reliance on their own resources is one lesson which the European war has brought home to the nations not involved, in the opinion of Paul M. Warburg, member of the Federal Reserve Board, who spoke today at the conference.

Mr. Warburg pointed out that when the war began England, then acting as banker for the world, felt forced to ask for some of the vast sums due her; and that this request was reflected in varying degrees in countries that were in her debt. He spoke of the acute situation which resulted in the United States and elsewhere on this hemisphere, and added:

"The lesson which all American nations will have to learn from last year's experience is that it is up to the world to place its financial dependence upon any single nation."

In "group conferences," delegates from eighteen countries began explanations to representatives of the commercial and financial interests of the United States of their peculiar needs, and indicated in what way capital and credit could be used to best advantage to strengthen trade relations.

Only a few of the delegates were prepared with concrete suggestions, but the general idea expressed was that in the southern republics the surplus capital of the United States would find fertile fields for investment which must bring in the future a closer union of political and commercial interests.

The only general session of the conference today was marked by a dramatic speech by Dr. Santiago Perez Triana, delegate from Colombia, who waved the flag of Pan-Americanism and declared that this hemisphere should be for Americans. He proposed a new version of the Monroe doctrine that would make it impossible in the future for one American nation to covet a foot of a neighbor's territory or invade her sacred soil. It was a speech such as has not been heard before at the conference, devoted largely to questions of commerce and trade, and the delegates greeted it with long-continued applause.

TRIANA QUOTED.
"We in America," Dr. Triana said, "should be prepared to make our inviolability stronger every day. We have seen what that inviolability means by this war. There may be distrust even in loving families. There may be dark corners in the past history of this continent, but let us see that in the future our harmony is diaphanous, transparent and clear. Let the nations here represented in solemn and formal fashion make it manifest that none of them covet the territory of any other and that the homes and territory of each shall be sacred."

At the opening of the day's session Secretary McAdoo announced that the Committee on Uniformity of Laws would consider the creation of an international commercial court to settle particularly matters arising out of trade disputes.

The conference by a rising vote approved sending a cablegram to the President of Argentina, extending congratulations on the occasion of the celebration of the anniversary of Argentine independence.

When the groups assembled after the general session the delegation

A Flying Machine Built on the Scale of a Railroad Train.

A giant aeroplane designed to carry eighty passengers.

The recent successful use of the giant Sikorsky aeroplane attached to the Russian army has drawn attention to the possibilities of flying machines constructed on a really big scale. The actual type of Sikorsky machine to which recent telegrams refer is known as the "Ilya Muromets," and is capable of carrying a number of men under favorable conditions, and such a fact naturally stimulates the imagination of all daring aircraft constructors. The above drawing shows how such ideas already were bearing fruit at the period when the great war opened. This drawing was made from material supplied by Claude Grahame-White, who is a firm believer in the coming of the large scale aeroplane. This idea is developed from the mercantile passenger-carrying point of view, but it will at once be evident that such a giant aeroplane would have great military possibilities as a raider and a man carrier. Mr. Grahame-White believes that within a few years' time aeroplanes of this type, driven by motors developing 3000 horse power and carrying eighty passengers, could maintain regular service between London and New York, a single journey in either direction being accomplished in about fifteen hours.

FIRE OF ASPHYXIATING SHELLS FAILS TO BUDGE THE BRITISH.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, May 25, 9:45 p.m.—A report received from Field Marshal Sir John French under date of May 25, says:

"Some portions of our line east of Ypres, which were lost yesterday by the enemy's gas attack, have not yet been recovered. The amount of gas used was greater than on any previous occasion—over a front of five miles."

"Portions of the line remained intact throughout the ordeal, and our men have demonstrated that with due precautions this form of attack can be met and defeated."

ITALIANS BY THOUSANDS
GOING FROM AMERICA

Reservists from New York and the will be First to Embark.

Diplomatic Officials Here Believe that at Least fourth of the Army will be Recruited from the States—Plans are Now Being Made to Transport Them.

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, May 25.—Four hundred thousand trained Italian reservists from the United States are expected to respond to their nation's call to the colors.

Seventy-five thousand of these reservists, it is estimated, live in Greater New York and will be the first to embark. The Italian Consulate here was confident today that this city would furnish not less than 25,000 more able and enthusiastic volunteers.

It can be stated authoritatively that Italian officials in this country feel confident that the number of Italians here subject to military duty will be swelled by not less than one-fourth through volunteers on whom Italy has no claim for military service.

All day today eager Italians flocked to the Consulate at Spring and LaFayette streets to enroll and to urge that they be sent among the first. As on the preceding day, order prevailed. By 8 o'clock in the afternoon it was estimated that approximately 1500 had offered themselves for military duty.

The case as a second trial differed from the case as presented on the first trial. The actual killing of the gunmen was not the issue, but the question was whether or not the gunmen were the assassins of the late president. The case was heard by the U. S. AT THE STAGE DOOR

Los Angeles is to have the largest and best-equipped motion-picture studio in the world.

It is to be built by the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Company, in accordance with an announcement made yesterday by Samuel Goldfish, who in company with Mr. Lasky, recently visited all the larger studios of New York and Chicago, and who brought West with him last week the plans for the new Lasky studio.

Option on a new site has been secured in Hollywood for the erection of the big studio, which is expected to cover a space 300x200 feet. The buildings will be of reinforced concrete; there will be dressing-rooms of the most modern and improved type; and there are to be a glass studio and two other stages.

The large 1900-acre ranch of the Lasky company near San Fernando is to be improved also with a stage and with several large permanent sets for use in pictures.

The Lasky company will have four companies at work at the beginning of next week.

New Thrillers.

The Lasky company is planning many big productions, among them being "The Chorus Lady" and "The Traveling Salesman," the rights to which Mr. Goldfish secured during his recent trip. East. Presumably Rose Stahl will play the leading role in "The Chorus Lady."

New Star Twinkles.

Lou Tellegen, famous leading man for Sarah Bernhardt, is the latest big star to be captured by the Lasky company. He will arrive about July 15, and will appear in two film versions of well-known plays in which he has gained success on the speaking stage.

Also Twinkles.

Charlotte Walker, the noted Broadway actress, has arrived, and is playing the lead in "Kindling" for the Lasky company. Thomas Melghan is playing opposite Miss Walker.

Back to the Limelight.

Miss Walker, who in private life is the wife of Eugene Walker, author of "Fine Feathers" and other successful plays, expects to appear next year in a light comedy adapted by her husband for her from a recently published novel.

"I shall be glad to get away from the blood-and-tear things I have been playing so long," said Miss Walker.

What role have I best enjoyed playing? Why, the lead in "The Admirable Crichton," when James Neill was manager. In that I had a delightfully wild little comedy role, and wore yellow tights and a leopard skin. But they've never let me be wild since."

Amel's Unwaver.

Here's a good one on the writer: When she arrived at the Lasky studio yesterday, she discovered James Neill and a girl in slave rags engaged in a dramatic conversation as they awaited the taking of their scenes. The girl was sitting on a kitchen chair, and as the writer began to scribble, the girl arose and said: "Please take this chair; you want to write."

"Any news?" I demanded breezily. "Have you a real part at last?" "Though she was an extra girl, you see, 'Til put your name in my column tomorrow," the reporter went on with kindly condescension.

"Well, yes, she's a pretty good part," answered the girl, as she leaned against a post, while the reporter sat down comfortably in the kitchen chair.

"All right. By the way, what is your full name?" which is the question always asked by reporters who can't remember any of the names.

"Mine?" Oh, Charlotte Walker," answered the young woman nonchalantly. Curtain!

Good-by, Lola.

Lola Meredith, who has been appearing in films for the Rolfe company, goes to New York today, where she will appear in a film version of Hupert Hughes' "The Bridge," for the same company.

Next season Miss Meredith will play the lead in a big shubert musical comedy production.

Other Twinkles.

Margherita Flecher and Harry Pollock, who left Santa Barbara a short time ago, have signed up for the Esplanade, and will work for that company in Chicago, possibly coming to California next winter. Both are great film favorites.

Jungle Party.

A jungle party was given last night at the Bostock studio. This does not necessarily mean that the hostesses did all the eating. Helen Shelley was the guest of Frances James of the Vitaphone company, and there were a score of invited guests, mostly motion picture folk. The party visited the zoo, viewed the animal performance, took rides on the elephant, and inspected the new motion picture plant. Later they adjourned to the Larchmont apartments and danced.

Florence, Too.

Florence Dagmar has the part of the millionaire's daughter in "Kindling," now being filmed by the Lasky company.

Three of a Kind.

Oscar Apfel, director for the Bostock-Morocco Motion Picture Company, has been signed up by the Fox Film Corporation. As announced exclusively in The Times recently, Allan Dwan and Raoul Walsh have also been engaged. The trio will leave Los Angeles for New York on June 15 with their own staff of camera men and assistants.

Mr. Walsh is to direct Betty Nansen and Theda Bara, which the Winfield R. Sheehan, general manager of the Fox Film Corporation, closed with all three late last week.

The Fox concern plans to locate a winter studio in Los Angeles during the coming fall.

No Chimes.

Through a misprint in this column yesterday the wedding of Page Peterson to Ruth Darline was announced. It appears the games were confused with those of Perry Peters, a motion-picture actor of Tucson, Ariz., and another Ruth Darline of the same place.

Magie Gets East.

George A. Magie, who took the post of general manager at Universal City when Leonard Bernstein resigned, will spend the summer in the East and Middle West, looking after the Universal's exchanges.

Mr. Magie established or purchased for the company its exchanges throughout the United States. Through his indefatigable efforts they were all placed in a flourishing condition. Since his arrival Mr. Magie has greatly increased the output and efficiency of the Pacific Coast studios, but the exchange business of the company requires his immediate attention.

H. F. Caulfield, who was formerly connected with the Universal's New York office, has been appointed general manager temporarily.

Howdy, Frances.

Frances Ring, Thomas Melghan's wife, will join him here in about a fortnight.

Good for You.

Thomas Melghan of "College Widow" and "Broadway Jones" fame, who is at present appearing in pictures for the Lasky company, will play the lead in a new Cohan & Harris production next season.

Mr. Melghan is under contract with London firm to appear in "A Fair of Sinner" as soon as the war clouds disappear.

Mary's New One.

Mary Alden will be featured at the Reliance in a new four-reeler by Mary O'Connor, entitled "The Old High Chair." Jack Conway, who has been promoted to the station of director, will direct the picture.

You Bet.

Mary Alden tells of an amusing little experience at a performance of "The Clansman" recently.

Under the able direction of President E. R. Steitz, Jr., and Secretary E. J. Adams, the league closed one of the most successful bowling events held in the city. The scores:

RISE AND FALL OF ONE ATHLETE.

Billy Cline says that many athletes are athletes mostly because some kind-hearted friend tells them that they are.

"When I was a youngster," says Billy, "I allowed someone to tell me that I was an athlete and believed it. I was scheduled to run in a hurdle race in a regular meet and a friend came in from Nevada to see me run."

"My friend had been out at the mines for several months, had several hundred dollars which he found it necessary to spend and as I was an athlete, he invited me to help him spend it."

"The night before the meet we went out and succeeded in spending just about half of said bank roll, finishing up at seven bells the next morning. Still I was an athlete and was perfectly willing to take a chance in the hurdle race."

"At the time I was confident that I was an athlete when I saw myself among all the other boys in running toes and when I cleared the first hurdle I was sure that I was an athlete, but about the third hurdle I could not tell which leg I was supposed to be running in, so took them all in to make sure that I was getting in the right one. Then I tried to take one in the snarl and all two hurdles at the same time and all I have to show that I ever was an athlete is a patch of scars on my right leg."

Seventeen-year-old Newton Brewer of St. Alban's School, Washington, D. C., surprised the athletic sharp by running the 100 yards in 9.4 seconds in the annual senior Middle States track and field meet at Philadelphia a few days ago. He also covered the 220 yards in 21.4 seconds the same afternoon. He is a brother of Brooke Brewer of the Georgetown University track team.

Two stars.

Max Marsh (above), who appears at China's Broadway, the latter part of this week, and Forrest Stanley training for his strenuous parts by playing golf at Griffith Park.

BOWLING NOTES.

In the final match of the Bankers' Bowling League tournament on the Majestic Alleys the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank defeated the Security Trust and Savings Bank, thereby winning first prize in the first annual tourney held by the league.

Tigers Lose to Oakland.

their shortcomings. From the ninth to the thirteenth there was nothing in the way of sending men around the bases.

RAYLESS TO FORT.

Then Dick Rayless made the circuit and the visitors were a score to the good. Dutch Klawitter didn't think enough of his team's chances to stay on the bench, but he hustled back in a hurry when the Oaks tied things up.

Oakland landed twice in the fourth, the only tallies that came until the ninth. Middleton started, but was forced at second by Johnston. Then Koenner, playing first for the disabled Jack Neas, put the ball over the right-field fence and the pair cantered around.

WOBBLY.

Klawitter wobbled most frightfully in the fifth. In fact, he filled up the bases with no one down and then retrieved. Rayless drew a walk and Purcell singled in a row and when Spencer put the ball to Guest, Marcan dropped the third strike. Guest made a remarkable catch of a Texas Leaguer off Kane, batting for Decatur's Canine, and Koenner ripped the ball right at Litch to retire Purcell at third.

LUCK PLAY.

A double play in the sixth when the Tigers had two men on and one down helped Klawitter out of another hole, and he lasted thereafter in great shape until the ninth. Heeling was out on a ground ball to Guest at short. Purcell singled to center and Spencer to left. Rayless replaced Tibb as a runner and Gieschmann, batting for Piercey, drove one at the infield that bounded over Marcan's head and out of his reach. Purcell scored and Rayless worked the double steal to land the run that prolonged the game.

LIVELY INNING.

The thirteenth was, as well, a lively inning. Rayless drew a walk and Ribberg beat out a slow one to the pitcher. Heeling's slow grounder to Marcan advanced the runner, and when Purcell retired by way of Guest, Rayless scored.

Oakland came right back. Ribberg made a bad throw on Gardner and Middleton sacrificed. Johnston poked the ball safely into the left-field territory and Rube reached the plate in safety.

With a 4-3 reading of the score-board, the clubs waited until the seventeenth for the finish. And you've read what happened. The score:

WHEN EUROPE SEES RED

In the wake of the great war will come a disaster even greater than is being wrought by the death-dealing guns and gases in battle-scarred Europe. America does not begin to realize the extent of this disaster which is foretold in the next issue of our NATIONAL SUNDAY MAGAZINE.

THE WAR'S LEGACY OF HATE

Article—By Walter Adolph Roberts
Illustrated by Adrien Machefert.

The author of this clean, impartial article was living in Paris when the war broke and since then he used his eyes and ears to advantage in France, Germany, Belgium and England. Racial hatreds, he declares, have been revived with an intensity unparalleled in civilized times. Russia and Turkey have no part in it. The Frenchmen and Belgians hate the Germans unforgettably. Austro-Hungarians regard the Slavs with a shuddering loathing. Germany does not hate France, but is delicious with hate against England, which, in his tests, but does not hate the Germans. The analysis the author makes is not only illuminative but carries interest and conviction.

Three-Part Mystery Story. By Anna Katharine Green.
Illustrated by Ernest Fuhr.

In this concluding installment of the latest and best Violet Stanger mystery, that Anna Katharine Green has written, Mr. Van Brocklyn drops the skeletons into the light and solves the tragedy that has secretly plagued his life since childhood. His amazing story—dating back to when as a little lad he witnessed his father and mother engaged in a separate rapier duel in the last installment is a complete and has a most surprising end.

THE DYNAMO OF BUSINESS

Editorial—By Hugh Chalmers.

This business talk to busy men is one of the foremost manifestations in America. Needless to say, it is a product of the shoulder, common-sense talk about the most risky and yet important single factor that makes the wheels of American industry go round. Read it and call it what you will—a report or a prophecy.

MOONGWE THE SON-DAUGHTER

Story—By Grace MacGowan Cooke.
Illustrated by Maynard Dixon.

Now and then a great picture is painted or a fine story written to commemorate the vanishing Red Indians and few writers combine the two so well as Maynard Dixon. That Grace MacGowan Cooke does in this little masterpiece of story writing. It is fiction founded on fact, the naked truth—the story of a young Indian boy who rebelled against the tribal edict condemning him to be an "squaw man." In it the author expresses the pathos of a dying people, and there's a fine love story in it, too. Moongwe is the boy that puts the Red in Hopi.

Among other features in the next issue of our NATIONAL SUNDAY MAGAZINE is a clever, catchism for both sexes, entitled A SELF-EXAMINATION, by Marguerite Wilkinson; and another of the laughable LIMERLEAKS, written and illustrated by Anthony Euwer.

AUTOS TO GIVE
RAPID TRANSIT?

Want Special Road and Fast
Buses to this City.

Everything from Subway to a Balloon Suggested.

Survey of Storm Channel is Now Under Way.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
PASADENA, May 25.—Every kind of conveyance from a trolley bus to a balloon has been suggested to the Committee of Fifty, which is bent on solving Pasadena's transportation problems. But of all the kinds of conveyances mentioned the trolley has received most favor.

Assemblyman Fish was a motor car advocate yesterday when the committee met to discuss ways and means whereby Pasadena could obtain more rapid transit to Los Angeles. "Steam railroads and electric cars will have to give way to the more modern and down-to-date mode of travel," said the Assemblyman. "Automobiles offer the cheapest and quickest solution of the rapid-transit problem here."

Assemblyman Fish advocated the building of a municipally-owned highway between Pasadena and Los Angeles. He declared a road with a heavy base and capable of sustaining the heavy traffic could undoubtedly be constructed for $10,000 a mile, or $100,000 for the ten miles necessary between the two cities.

For equipment he advocated the use of high-power automobiles which he said could be purchased for $10,000. The machines, running exclusively on their own right of way, with all grade crossings eliminated, ought to make the trip in twenty-five minutes, or half the time now occupied in making the trip by electric car, he said.

The day of the steel rail is past, according to Mr. Fish, and railroads will soon be going out of business. One of the points brought out by the Assemblyman is that speed is not the only thing to be considered, but frequency of service is of equal importance.

Should Pasadena not take kindly to the municipally-owned highway and municipally-owned "trolley" idea, Dr. Charles D. Lockwood, suggested, the Salt Lake road could be electrified.

THIS BURGLAR A SHOESTRING.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
CORONA, May 25.—Crawling through an eight-inch opening between the window sill and an iron bar, a burglar of the general contour of "A. Mutt" entered the hardware store of Glass Brothers early this morning and stole a pair of shoes and money amounting to $165.

After a thorough inventory of the stock it was found fifty pearl-handled knives, seven pistols and $5 had been taken. The money was secured after the burglar had carried the cash register to a nearby alley and smashed it open.

The police are convinced the theft was the work of professionals. Two suspicious characters have been seen driving an automobile in this vicinity.

TO TEST MENTAL
STATE OF SLAYER.

COURT CONVICTED THERE IS A DOUBT AS TO SANITY; OTHER NEWS.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
RIVERSIDE, May 25.—Convicted there is a reasonable doubt as to the sanity of Ed B. Williams, who was charged with the murder of his neighbor, Miss May Warren, on November 21, last. Judge Denmore, in granting the motion of Williams' attorney, Richard J. Hays, to delay the trial, said that the jury should be satisfied that the prisoner's mental condition first terminated by a special jury.

Affidavits of a number of physicians were submitted, all of which expressed serious doubt as to Williams' sanity, following the attack on his own life at the time of the shooting of Miss Warren, when Williams fired a bullet into his own head.

The testimony further went to show that the prisoner had not acted in a sane manner since placed in the County Jail.

NO RATE-FIXING.

Efforts of certain members of the City Council to fix a rate of $1, net for gas failed today, when a majority vote it was decided to let the matter rest until the next session. A commission, which will be set up in August, a resolution recently adopted by the city for a public hearing with reference to the rates charged by the Pacific Electric Railway, was defeated.

Representative of the Southern California Gas Company intimated that if the gas rates were reduced, the company might sue for injunction, a proceeding the officials hoped to avoid by letting the matter go before the commission for determination.

VIEW SITES.

A committee from the directors of the Exchange By-products Company, an auxiliary corporation of the California Fruit Exchange, inspected sites here today for the proposed plant of the new organization. The company was organized for the purpose of utilizing the waste products now lost because of lack of facilities for working it into dextrin of lime and other marketable by-products. The committee comprises R. B. Hampton, president of the California Fruit Exchange, and D. E. Huff, president of the Exchange By-products Company.

NO MONEY; SCHOOLS CLOSE.

(BY WIRE SERVICE—SANTA BARBARA, May 25.—The Santa Barbara grammar school term will terminate Friday. The unexpected early closing is due to a lack of funds.

Under a court order the money might be drawn on the county fund of next year, but through the recent situation, with the school district becomes part of the Los Angeles city school district and cannot join with a debt.

STREET DANCE.

Considerable discussion has arisen over the recent street dance, with which Monrovia's twenty-ninth birthday anniversary was celebrated about two weeks ago. The trouble started with a sermon on the subject of the dances being given monthly during the summer. A counter petition with sermon on the subject of the dances being given monthly during the summer. A counter petition with sermon on the subject of the dances being given monthly during the summer.

It seems certain, however, that the dances will not be continued.

TO STUDY SEA LIFE.

Nearly Hundred Students are Expected to Attend Session at Marine Laboratory.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)
LAGUNA BEACH, May 25.—The Pomona College marine laboratory, which was built a year ago, will open on June 21 for a six weeks' session. Between seventy-five and 100 students will be here to take the courses in biology or to make special studies of marine life, opportunities for which are nowhere better than in the channels, pools and coves of the rugged coast of this section.

For the use of the students and professors the Laguna Beach Company has commenced the construction of a tent city in the flat near the laboratory. A dining hall, bath-house and forty tents will be put up. The street was graded last week and today carpenters started work on the bath-house.

FIRST SALES OF OWENS RIVER WATER IN VALLEY.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SAN FERNANDO, May 25.—The Owens River water sold to the city of Los Angeles in the San Fernando Valley was today turned on the ranches of A. O. Parker and O. E. Raddatz. Connections were completed with the Franklin Canyon line yesterday and today the water is in use, meter measure.

This is not the first Owens River water used in the valley. Last year, when hydraulic dredgers were used to fill the walls of the dam with mud, the overflow water ran off in the open ditch and thrifty ranchmen along the purpose. Messrs. Parker and Raddatz.

SEEK FEDERAL AD TO RECLAIM GREAT TRACT.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

SAN BERNARDINO, May 25.—National assistance for the reclamation projects in the desert country north of the San Bernardino Mountains will be the object of a trip to San Bernardino, Pine Crest, Little Bear Valley and Victorville next month by the Victor Valley Mutual Water and Power District Association, with Southern California Congressional representatives as their guests.

The San Bernardino Chamber of Commerce will co-operate in the arrangements for the trip.

The desert promoters desire to show the magnitude of the plans for reclaiming 60,000 acres of arid lands and point out what already has been accomplished with local capital in water conservation and irrigation.

A meeting of the Victor Valley Chamber of Commerce will be held early in June to complete plans for the trip.

NEW SHIP SERVICE TO MOVE MEXICAN CROPS.

(LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE)

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, May 25.—The British steamer Prince Albert, under charter to the Southwestern Steamship Company, arrived here today from San Francisco and will proceed Thursday, inaugurating a new service to Mexico, which will include the fast freight, express and passenger.

The new line was organized primarily to move the crop of garbanzo peas from Mexican ports, which has been piled high on the wharves because of lack of tonnage along the coast.

At 2 o'clock, Rev. B. J. Darnell, rector of St. Luke's church, officiating, and colors snapping in the breeze, the Australian student-tourists stormed the city at noon today and received an enthusiastic welcome from the Chamber of Commerce, high school students and Monrovia's general public.

Boys marched to the high school where they were tendered a luncheon. Afterward many of them delivered lectures on their country at the various other marketable by-products. The committee comprises R. B. Hampton, president of the California Fruit Exchange, and D. E. Huff, president of the Exchange By-products Company.

FRANK A JEW,

Rector Tells the Governor of Georgia Hebrews Abhor
Strangulation.

(BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
SAN DIEGO, May 25.—Because of a psychological repugnance to death by strangulation which the Jewish race has always held, Rev. Alfred H. Glover, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, an authority on Hebrew customs, has written to the Governor of Georgia to protest against the execution of Leo M. Frank.

Rev. Mr. Glover says in his letter that, because of this repugnance to strangulation, either man or beast, which arose from Jewish laws governing the slaughter of animals, Leo Frank, a Jew, could not have been guilty of the crime of which he is accused, that of strangling Mary Phagan, an American girl, and that the method of murder absolutely non-Jewish. He says that never in Jewish history has a murder been committed by a Jew by strangulation and that this fact should militate against the execution of the Jew.

Poor Reports of Condition in the Southwest and an Expected Adverse Government Forecast Bring About a Decided Upturn—Corn and Oats Also Stronger.

(ST. A. P. NEWS WIRE.)

CHICAGO, May 25.—Assessors (has crop damage) to the northwest has been far more extensive than has been realized by the trade and that the next government report would prove unusually bullish brought about a decided advance today in the price of wheat. Although unsettled at the close, the market showed a rise of $\frac{1}{16}$ to 2c net. Corn wound up with a gain of $\frac{5}{16}$ to $\frac{1}{4}$ and oats of $\frac{1}{8}$ to $\frac{1}{4}$.
In provisions the outcome varied from 5c decline to an upsurge of 2 $\frac{1}{2}$ c.
Corn went up grade, helped by the remarkable strength of wheat.
Oats trading hinged largely on the
